A generous innovative outreach grant was received in 2022 to support efforts to serve more participants post-pandemic. As events started to restart, the team has focused on partnering with the community organizations to connect with those who would most benefit from the TCR programming. TCR has done outreach at events in North Minneapolis and beyond such as Juneteenth, Open Streets. The organization reopened its doors to the public in June and hosted a community event over the summer. TCR is also continuing to partner with organizations that are providing a variety of wrap-around services such as housing.

Train-the-trainer certification is a lengthy process that takes 6 to 9 months to complete, including virtual classroom training, facilitator training, and supported facilitation. TCR's signature Personal Empowerment curriculum focuses on emotional intelligence and personal development. It recognizes that in addition to job skills, participants need to believe in their own self-worth, manage emotions, be proactive problem-solvers, and embrace personal responsibility for long-term success.

We serve more than 1,100 individuals across all programming, including our core workforce development training, Career Pathways training, and Empowerment Institute capacity building training. Though diligently working to increase participant numbers to pre-pandemic levels and higher the programs are seeing lower enrollment numbers. Yet despite the challenges reaching people as a factor of the lower unemployment rates and continuing to navigate in a hybrid space, TCR continues to empower lives. Twin Cities R!SE works with those who have the most barriers to employment, transforming their lives through career development. The employment placement as a percent of completions continues to increase. Training graduates gained employment that paid on average $38,236 per year. Long-term retention rates are strong, at 66% after 12 months and 65% after 24 months which is a 50% increase over last year.
